

LICENSE AND SKILL IN FILLING PRESCRIPTIONS

The ingredients that enter into your prescriptions play an important part, but the way those ingredients are mixed is equally as important. The patient deserves the best results, also the doctor. Your prescription represents his skilled diagnosis. Our prescription department is in the hands of two registered pharmacists, and we are prepared to give the very best service. We solicit an opportunity to fill your prescriptions.

Prof. R. E. Galloway, of Santa Rosa, passed through Tucumcari Wednesday enroute home from his farm near Logan, where he had been visiting a few days. He had with him a little bunch of stock.

We can now partially sympathize with the flooded districts near Dalhart and Liberal and we do not care if it don't rain for a month. If it would distribute the rainfall a little more and not try to drop all our portion in a few days' time we might appreciate the liberality.

Allie Reed a farmer near San Jon who has been in old Arkansas, for the last three years has returned and says: "New Mexico looks good to me." He has accepted a position with the water service of the E. P. & S. W. R. R.

Prof. W. D. Shadwick and wife left the first of the week for Rock Port, Mo., where they will spend the summer vacation. Prof. Shadwick will study law at the Missouri State University, but has been re-elected as principal of the high school and will return to Tucumcari before September 1st.

Miss Clara Gerhardt was entertained by her Sunday School class Monday evening at the home of Mrs. H. Gerhardt. Harold Richey carried off the honors in a guessing contest. Refreshments were served after a series of games had been played and then all departed to the land of slumber to dream of the enjoyable time they had had.

Secretary Prentice informs us that the famous pathfinder and highway promoter, Mr. Westgard, will pass through Tucumcari in the near future on a tour of inspection of our route to El Paso. He is anxious to locate a suitable and shorter route from the east to connect with the Borderland route via El Paso, Phoenix and San Diego.

Nine crews were pulled off from service Tuesday on account of the serious washout and in order to cut out the guarantee. All the crews were put back before Thursday and the usual number of trains were in operation. Business on the road is said to be the best for years and it is thought additional men will be put on within a few months.

J. E. Mundell of the local experiment station was exhibiting a 300-pound bale of cotton on our streets Tuesday. It was ginned at the station and brought to town and baled by hand at the old cotton gin here. The grade was said to have been the best and was sold to a local buyer at 12 cents. Mr. Mundell says the average yield of cotton in this country is about 400 pounds to the acre.

Last Friday, while J. G. Ellis was driving his colts home from the Charles Warnet place, the mare, which he was riding, was bitten with a large rattlesnake and died in a short time. Mr. Ellis killed the snake, and as the mare was unable to travel, by that time, he hurried home, for medicine, but she died before he returned. This is quite a loss to Mr. Ellis, as it was his best mare and came at the busiest season of the year.—San Jon Sentinel.

A. D. and M. B. Goldenberg returned Tuesday morning from Tularosa, where they attended the funeral of their brother-in-law, Bruno Kroneberg, president of the Tularosa Trading Co., who died very suddenly from heart trouble. Mr. Kroneberg was only 42 years old. He formerly lived here and had many friends here who greatly mourn his death. He was a 32d degree Mason and belonged to the Woodmen lodge. He leaves a widow and two children.

The blue book, which is accepted as the official guide by the National Highway Association, arrived this week, having just been printed. It shows Clovis on the line of the from ocean to ocean highway from Amarillo to Albuquerque and gives complete and accurate information concerning the route. Some other towns in eastern New Mexico and elsewhere are just now awakening to the importance of being on this auto route which will be traveled by many tourists enroute to the exposition this winter and next spring, but their efforts in this respect are a little late. Clovis was busy on the proposition six months ago, while the others peacefully slept. To those of Ima and House who fear that the route will be changed and the traffic diverted in another direction, we can only say that there is no occasion to fear as this route is on the blue book to stay, Sabe?—Clovis News.

Tucumcari has just closed one of the most successful school years ever known. No serious hinderances of any kind were experienced and the schools pulled through without the usual delay on account of contagious diseases. Most of the old teachers will be with us again next year and here's hoping for an equally successful school year.

The junior class of the high school was entertained at the home of Mrs. E. E. Clark last Wednesday evening. The class is composed of twelve members—six boys and six girls. The evening was spent in dancing, pulling candy and various other amusements.

Miss Dora Sisney entertained the Freshmen class at her home last Wednesday evening. There were about seventeen in attendance, and the evening was spent in playing games. Nice refreshments were served, and everybody had a most pleasant time. The young people were chaperoned by Mrs. Tarpley.

The Mum Special last Thursday was one of the most unique affairs ever pulled off in Tucumcari. The Misses Koch, who were the hostesses, worked overtime and arranged a program never before heard of, but on account of lack of space we will not attempt to fully explain the evening's entertainment. Many contests were put on and as many premiums given, besides all the guests were given a small suit case filled with candy.

Men's Blue Serge Suits for Memorial Day

SOMEHOW THIS NATIONAL HOLIDAY suggests a trim outfit of blue. Perhaps that is traceable to the good old American flag—but at all events it is a fixed item in the dress schedule of well attired men.

OUR PRESENT ASSEMBLAGE OF BLUE serge suits includes a large majority of STEIN-BLOCH garments—garments with a reputation for goodness which dates away back to war days, and then some!

COME AND SEE.

During June, July and August

IT ISN'T VERY PLEASANT TO FACE THE task of using stove heating irons, is it? As a matter of fact, they are annoying the year 'round. As soon as you begin to use a G-E Electric Iron the real hardship of ironing day disappears.

G-E Electric Irons

become hot without heating the air. They save you the usual steps from ironing board to stove. You iron straight ahead with the same iron until your work is done. The iron is ready for use a few minutes after you turn the switch and will not cool off until its task is finished. The average cost of operating the G-E Iron is but a few cents for a whole week's ironing. Let us show you one.
